

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

What a wild and extreme ride, but here it is: written, edited, and complete. Whew! Through all this crazy mania, there are those who were there, both physically and virtually, and witnessed it all. These remarkable individuals must be sincerely thanked. For one individual in particular, who is worthy of the utmost sincere thanks... equally because of his unselfish moral support through this hellish process, unconditional szerelem, and his academic expertise as an already knighted Master in Geography – Herr Alexander (and I don't mean that guy from Perth either!), also known under the aliases of kedves paprikam, Kartoffel, LOML, and Fianc+ALT 130. Those, in addition to Herr Alex, who have greatly assisted me with their honest and unwavering encouragement include: my parents, my sister, the Cool Cucumbers and their incredibly awesome female back-up singer (and good friend), and the Gund Family. Most naturally, thanks goes out to my advisor for his help in shaping this coherent piece of academic writing.

So all who must be thanked have been thanked. And genuine thanks indeed, for without you, I could have very well ended up in a crumpled heap, only to be found if and when the janitor swept underneath the desks of the TA offices in Walker Building.
